

A

Algebra

This course covers the basic principles of Algebra. It is appropriate for students who are new to Algebra and also for students who need a review in the course. Assessment given the first day will determine course focus.

Algebra II

Review Algebra II basics in preparation for SAT or even to prepare for taking the class in HS next year

Art, Beginning

Have a great time learning various art techniques from drawing, painting, crafts and other fun activities. Come prepared to get down and dirty with paint, glue, glitter, pastels, and more!!

Art, Intermediate

Learn intermediate techniques in sketching and painting plus special projects as determined by the instructor. Each student will receive a sketchbook and will put together a portfolio of their work.

B

Basic Math

This course is appropriate for students who have not taken pre-algebra yet and need a review on long division and multiplication, percentages, decimals, and other basic math.

C

Computers One (PC)

This entry level computers course uses PC computers to teach internet safety, utilizing the internet for class projects and beginning research. Students will be using an email address for class assignments and activities. PARENT RELEASE REQUIRED.

Computers Two (MAC)

This intermediate course will utilize Mac computers to learn to utilize various software for design, educational research and special projects, as determined by the instructor.

E

English Explorations

This writing class will allow you to develop your writing skills through spelling, grammar and writing practice. Students will be exposed to a variety of writing styles including journaling, paragraph/essay development, and creative writing. Writing can be fun!

F

Fashion Design

Love fashion? Want to learn how to design your own clothing line? This class will cover the basics of fashion design from sketching to material selection. No sewing required.

Fun with Books

Explore the world of books written just for kids! This class will not only read stories and practice writing but will also explore how nature, art and food connect inside books. At the end of the session, you'll take home your own fairy tale book.

G

Geometry

Review Geometry basics in preparation for SAT or even to prepare for taking the class in HS next year

J

Jr. Glee

Do you love to perform? Would you like to improve your acting and singing skills? This class will help you develop basic acting techniques through improvisation, scene work and acting games as well as musical theater performance pieces as a small group and individually.

L

Language Arts from Around the World

Learn about the cultures and customs of different countries. We'll read multicultural books, sing, and dance and make crafts that represent different customs. This class will combine reading, writing, language, music, art and drama

M

Math Mania

Adding, subtracting, telling time, counting money and more by using math games with extra practice on the basics.

Math Time

Review of addition and subtraction. Work on multiplication and division. It's time to get ready for having fun with Math!

Pre-Algebra

This course covers the basic principles of Pre-Algebra. It is appropriate for students who are new to Pre-Algebra and also for students who need a review in the course. Assessment given the first day will determine course focus.

Project Seed: Algebra for Kids

Students will discover and investigate concepts that will reinforce their basic skills, build mathematical confidence, and prepare them for more advanced work. Specialists from Project SEED use an interactive, question and answer method of teaching that has proved successful with students of all ages for over 40 years.

Reading Success

This is a comprehensive summer course designed to help students become proficient readers. Research shows that students who read more become better students in all subjects. Exposure to grade appropriate literature by a certified reading specialist

Science

Ooze, goo, slime, and sludge. Conduct great experiments, learn about the world around you and have fun in the science lab while learning the basics of biology, physics and environmental science

Spanish

Learn the basics of Spanish from the alphabet to the names of the items around you. Also learn about the Latino culture through art, music, and food

Wii Sports

Test your skill at a variety of sports using the all popular Wii Sports program!! This unique class will allow students to play a variety of sports indoors while using an easy gaming system.