1	I am very aware of the role, but I am concerned that the rest of the college community is not actively seeking out student participation. Rather, it is a formality and not a substantive part of the governing process.	3/31/2014 2:20 PM
2	No idea what this means. Or do you guys mean a students activities (performance-wise) affecting governing bodies.	3/26/2014 12:35 PM

2	To me this question is asking about vision and how to carry that out. I do not see our campus meeting our students where they are and I do not see faculty actively seeking professional development opportunities in strategies to support our population. Management could do 100% better in facilitating this discussion.	3/31/2014 2:20 PM
