#	Responses	Date
1	Have meeting after our working hours or before working hours. lunch time meeting to insure be get to attend meeting	2/10/2014 4:48 PM
2	Shared governance can be improved by encouraging classified staff participation in shared governance. Currently there are no incentives to participation, and classified are often concerned about leaving their office/work area unmanned.	2/10/2014 3:07 PM
3	More classified should be involved	2/10/2014 11:46 AM
4	More visable departmental budget plans	2/7/2014 8:21 AM
5	Better communication with the college community	2/7/2014 8:15 AM
6	The executive committee should take steps to communicate to all managers they should be holding regularly scheduled staff meetings. My manager does not hold meetings, but feels because there is an open door policy within the office, there really isn't a need for staff meetings. However, regularly scheduled meetings with the objective to discuss these types of topics would be meaningful.	2/6/2014 11:02 AM
7	More training upon hiring on where to access information about shared governance. Additionally, as a classified employee I was not very informed about the governance structures in the College - it's only through having been invited to participate in decision-making processes that I began to understand more. Technically speaking, I may not even have been qualified to participate in those decision-making processes at first, since I was so uninformed about the big picture. I have often felt in working at CCC that I was finding my way in the dark where governance is concerned.	2/4/2014 3:57 PM
