

records by filing a written request with the Admissions & Records Office. Within five working days the education records will be made available for inspection.

2. Directory information: directory information, as defined by the college, may be released without prior notice to the student unless the student provides a written notice to the Admissions & Records Office that they do not want such information to be released without their consent.

Student Right-to-Know and Campus Security Act

In compliance with the Student-Right-to-Know and Campus Security Act of 1990 (Public Law 101-542), it is the policy of the Contra Costa Community College District and Contra Costa College to make available its completion and transfer rates to all current and prospective students. Beginning in Fall 2010, a cohort of all certificate-, degree-, and transfer-seeking first-time, full-time students were tracked over a three-year period. Their completion and transfer rates are listed below. These rates do not represent the success rates of the entire student population at Contra Costa College, nor do they account for student outcomes occurring after this three-year tracking period.

Based upon the cohort defined above, 23.55 percent attained a certificate or degree or became “transfer prepared” during a three-year period, from Fall 2010 to Spring 2013. Students who are “transfer-prepared” have completed 60 transferable units with a GPA of 2.0 or better.

Based on the cohort defined above, 12.47 percent transferred to another postsecondary institution, (UC, CSU, or another California Community College) prior to attaining a degree, certificate, or becoming “transfer-prepared” during a five semester period from Spring 2011 to Spring 2013.

Additional information regarding Student Right-to-Know rates and how to interpret them may be accessed at the California Community Colleges’ “Student-Right-to-Know Clearing House Website” located at <http://srtk.cccco.edu/index.asp>.

Campus Security Act

Annual reports of criminal activity on campus and procedures for prevention of campus crime are available on request from Police Services in the CP Building.

Financial Obligations of Students

In accordance with Contra Costa Community College District Governing Board Policy 5018, and California Education Code Section 72237, Contra Costa College shall withhold transcripts, diplomas, and registration privileges from any student or former student who has been provided with written notice that he or she has failed to pay a proper financial obligation due to the district or a college. Any item or items withheld shall be released when the student satisfactorily meets the financial obligation.

Student Code of Conduct

Student Services Procedure 3027

I. Introduction

The Student Code of Conduct is a statement of the Contra Costa Community College District’s expectations regarding student standards of conduct, both academic and nonacademic. Students are expected to obey all laws and district policies and regulations. Students shall be subject to discipline for violation of these laws, policies, and regulations. Student misconduct may also be subject to other regulations of the district including, but not limited to, regulations regarding complaints of harassment and discrimination.

II. Definitions

For the purpose of these rules and regulations, the following words and terms are defined as follows:

- A. “Student” shall mean all persons enrolled in any courses at the colleges in the district, regardless of where courses are taught, whether they are enrolled full-time or part-time, for credit or non-credit or not-for credit or contract education and whether or not she or he is planning to earn a degree, certificate or other certification. Persons who are enrolled in online or partially online courses are also considered ‘students’. Persons who are not officially enrolled for a particular term, but who have been admitted to the college and enroll in courses from time to time, and have a continuing relationship with the college, are considered “students”.
- B. “Governing Board” shall mean the governing board of the Contra Costa Community College District.
- C. “District” shall mean the Contra Costa Community College District, including, but not limited to, its administrative staff and each of its colleges.
- D. “College” shall mean a college operated and maintained by the district.
- E. “Member of the College Community” shall mean the district trustees, the academic personnel, support staff, and administrative personnel of the district, the students of the district and any other person while on district or college property or at a district or college function or activity.
- F. “Day” shall refer to a college instructional day unless otherwise noted.
- G. “Good Cause” as defined in Education Code, Section 76033 includes, but is not limited to, the following offenses:
 1. Continued disruptive behavior, continued willful disobedience, habitual profanity or vulgarity, or the open and persistent defiance of the authority of, or persistent abuse of, college personnel.
 3. Assault, battery, or any threat of force or violence upon a student or college personnel.
 4. Willful misconduct which results in injury or death of a student or college personnel or which results in cutting, defacing, or other injury to any real or personal property owned by the district.
 5. Use, sale, or possession on campus of, or presence on campus under the influence of, any controlled substance, or any poison classified as such by Schedule D in section 4160 of the Business and Professions Code.

6. Willful or persistent smoking in any area where smoking has been prohibited by law, by regulation of the governing board, or by college policy.
 7. Persistent serious misconduct where other means of correction have failed to bring about proper conduct.
 8. Other behavior that may warrant disciplinary action.
- H. "Sexual harassment" is unwelcome conduct of a sexual nature, including, but not limited to, unwelcome sexual advances, requests for sexual favors, and other verbal, nonverbal, or physical conduct of a sexual nature.
- I. "Sexual violence" means any physical sexual acts perpetrated against a person's will or where a person is incapable of giving consent due to the victim's use of drugs or alcohol. An individual also may be unable to give consent due to minority/or an intellectual or other disability. A number of different acts fall into the category of sexual violence, including rape, sexual assault, sexual battery, and sexual coercion. All such acts of sexual violence are forms of sexual harassment.
- J. "Complainant" shall mean any member of the college community (student, faculty or staff member) who submits a charge alleging that a student violated this code. A complainant who accuses a student of sexual harassment or sexual violence and who believes they are a victim of these prohibited actions will be guaranteed the same rights as the student accused, including the right to present witnesses and other evidence and to be accompanied by an advisor at a hearing, the right to be notified of the outcome of the complaint and the same appeal processes as are provided to the accused student. Complainants may not be entitled to know the exact level of discipline imposed due to privacy rights.
- K. "Preponderance of the evidence" standard means the greater weight of the evidence, i.e. it is more likely than not that misconduct occurred.
- L. "Hate violence" means any act of physical intimidation or physical harassment, physical force or physical violence, or the threat of physical force or physical violence, that is directed against any person or group of persons, or the property of any person or group of persons because of ethnicity, race, color, national origin, religion, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity expression, disability or political or religious beliefs of that person or group.

III. Grounds for disciplinary action

Students shall conduct themselves consistent with the Student Code of Conduct while on campus or participating off campus in online or partially online courses, or at college sponsored events or programs including, but not limited to, field trips, student conferences, debate competitions, athletic contests, club-sponsored events, and international study programs, regardless of location. Students shall also conduct themselves consistent with the Student Code of Conduct in any matter related to school activity or attendance. Students shall be suspended or expelled only for good cause. The college may have an obligation to respond to student-on-student harassment that initially occurred off campus. If a student files a complaint with the college, regardless of where the conduct occurred, the college must process the complaint in accordance with its established procedures if the complaint relates to college activities. Because students often experience the continuing effects of off-campus harassment in the educational setting, colleges should consider the effects of off-campus conduct when evaluating whether the district has jurisdiction to process the complaint. The college should take steps to protect a student who was assaulted off campus from further harassment or retaliation from the perpetrator and his or her associates, if the district has jurisdiction over the matter.

Misconduct that constitutes grounds for disciplinary action includes, but is not limited to:

1. Acts of academic dishonesty including, but not limited to:
 - a. cheating defined as unauthorized copying or collaboration on a test or assignment, or the use, or attempted use of, unauthorized materials;
 - b. tampering defined as altering or interfering with evaluation instruments or documents;
 - c. fabrication defined as falsifying experimental data or results, inventing research or laboratory data or results for work not done, falsely claiming sources not used or fabricating or falsifying documentation to try to change a course grade;
 - d. lying;
 - e. plagiarism defined as representing someone else's words, idea, artistry, or data as one's own, including copying another person's work (including published and unpublished material, and material from the internet) without appropriate referencing, presenting someone else's opinions and theories as one's own, or working jointly on a project, then submitting it as one's own; or
 - f. assisting others in an act of academic dishonesty, such as taking a test or doing an assignment for someone else, changing someone's grades or academic records, or
2. Inappropriately distributing exams to other students;
3. Other forms of dishonesty, such as lying, plagiarism, knowingly furnishing false information, or reporting a false emergency to any college official, faculty or staff member or office or to the district;
4. Forgery, alteration, misappropriation or theft, misuse of any district or college document, record, key, electronic device, or identification including, but not limited to, unauthorized grade changes and forged signatures on official college forms;
5. Misrepresentation of oneself or of an organization to be an agent of the district;
6. Obstruction or disruption on or off district property of teaching or of the district's educational process, administrative process, disciplinary procedures, or other district functions and activities, on or off district property;
7. Disruptive or abusive behavior, such as verbal harassment, habitual profanity or vulgarity, physical abuse, hate violence, intimidation, bullying, hazing, or stalking of any member of the college community. Harassment includes the infliction of psychological and/or emotional harm upon any member of the college community through any means, including but not limited to e-mail, social media/networking, text messages, and other technological forms of communication.

- When harassment, abuse, intimidation and bullying are motivated by bias against students based on their actual or perceived race, ethnicity, color, national origin, sex, disability, sexual orientation, gender identity/expression or political or religious beliefs, students found responsible for violating the code may receive enhanced sanctions;
7. Vandalism, graffiti, or other willful misconduct which results in cutting, defacing, or other damages to any real or personal property owned by the district or a member of the college community;
 8. Assault, battery, violence or threat of violence, or any willful misconduct which results in an injury or death of a student or district personnel or behavior that threatens the health and safety of any member of the college community;
 9. Theft of district property, or property in the possession of, or owned by, a member of the college community;
 10. Violation of district or college policies or regulations including, but not limited to, those concerning the formation and registration of student organizations, the use of college facilities or the time, place, and manner of public expression or the distribution of leaflets, pamphlets, or other materials;
 11. Failure to comply with the directions of the district or college officials acting in the performance of their duties and/or failure to identify oneself to these persons when requested to do so;
 12. The use, sale, distribution, or possession on campus of, or presence on campus under the influence of, any controlled substances, or any poison classified as such by Schedule D section 4160 of the Business and Professions Code or other California laws on district property or at any district-sponsored event. Use of a prescription drug if the prescription was not issued to the student, or the distribution or sale of a prescription drug to a person to whom the prescription was not originally issued. Intentionally or recklessly inhaling or ingesting substances (e.g., nitrous oxide, glue, paint, etc.) that will alter a student's mental state is also prohibited. Possession of drug paraphernalia including, but not limited to, bongs or glass pipes. This regulation does not apply when the person named on the prescription possesses the drugs or narcotics or when the drugs or narcotics are permitted for, and are being used, in research, instruction, or analysis;
 13. Possession, consumption, sale, distribution or delivery of any alcoholic beverage in college buildings or on college grounds, or at college sponsored or supervised activities, regardless of their location, unless authorized by college officials;
 14. Possession or use of explosives, dangerous chemicals, or deadly weapons on district property or at a campus function, without prior authorization of the college president;
 15. Engaging in lewd, indecent, or obscene behavior on district-owned or controlled property or at a district-sponsored or supervised function;
 16. Rape, date rape, sexual harassment, sexual violence, sexual assault, or threat of an assault upon a student or member of the college community on district property, or at a college or district-sponsored or supervised function;
 17. Unauthorized use of, or misuse of district property, including, but not limited to, unauthorized possession, duplication or use of district keys and/or unauthorized entry into, unauthorized use of, or misuse of district property;
 18. Willful or persistent smoking in any area where smoking has been prohibited by law or by regulation of the governing board, or college policy;
 19. Knowingly assisting another person in the commission of a violation of the Student Code of Conduct;
 20. Misuse of computers and networks which includes, but is not limited to, utilizing an unauthorized account, password, campus network, interfering with normal computer operations, circumventing data protection schemes or uncovering security loopholes, or violating terms of the software agreements;
 21. Willful disruption of the orderly operation of the campus;
 22. Leading or inciting others to disrupt scheduled and/or normal authorized activities;
 23. Obstruction of the free flow of pedestrian or vehicular traffic on college premises or at college sponsored or supervised events;
 24. Unauthorized use of electronic or other devices to make an audio or video record of any person while on college premises without his/her prior knowledge, or without his/her effective consent when such a recording is likely to cause injury or distress. This includes, but is not limited to, surreptitiously taking pictures of another person in a gym locker room or a restroom;
 25. Any other cause identified as good cause by Education Code section 76033, not identified above; or any applicable Penal Code sections, or other applicable local, state, or federal laws;
 26. Any other ground constituting good cause.
- Violation of parking laws, regulations, or rules shall not be cause for the removal, suspension, or expulsion of a student (Ed. Code § 76036).
- Nothing in these procedures shall preclude a student with a disability from receiving appropriate accommodations as identified by Disability Support Services.

IV. Types of disciplinary action

The following discipline may be imposed, individually or in various combinations, on any student found to have violated the Student Code of Conduct:

WARNING: A warning is a written or oral notice to the student that continuation or repetition of certain conduct may result in further disciplinary action.

RESTITUTION: Restitution is reimbursement by the student for damage to, loss of or misappropriation of property. Reimbursement may take the form of appropriate service by the student to repair property or otherwise compensate for damage.

PROJECTS AND ASSIGNMENTS: Projects and assignments may include educational projects, service to the college, and other related discretionary assignments.

DISCIPLINARY PROBATION: Probation is a status imposed for a specific period of time in which a student must demonstrate that his or her conduct conforms to district standards of conduct as set forth in these regulations. Conditions may be imposed at the discretion of the district or the president's designee. Misconduct during the probationary period or violation of any conditions of the probation may result in more serious disciplinary action, such as loss of privileges, suspension, or expulsion.

LOSS OF PRIVILEGES: Loss of privileges is the denial of extra-curricular activities or other special privileges for a designated period of time. Violation of any conditions or campus regulations during the period of sanction may result in far more serious disciplinary action, such as suspension or expulsion.

REMOVAL: Removal of a student from class by an instructor or with the assistance of police services, if necessary.

SUSPENSION: Suspension is a separation from the district for a designated period of time after which the student will be eligible to return. A suspension may consist of (a) a period of time from one or more classes for a period up to ten (10) days of instruction; (b) from one or more classes for the remainder of the school term; and (c) from all classes or activities of the college for one or more terms for up to three (3) years.

EXPULSION: Expulsion is the permanent termination of student status by the governing board for good cause when other means of correction fail to bring about proper conduct or when the presence of the student causes a continuing danger to the physical safety of the student or others. A student who is expelled is prohibited from participating in any college activities or programs and from entering district premises.

REVOCAION OF DEGREE OR CERTIFICATION: A degree or certificate awarded from the college may be revoked for fraud, misrepresentation, or other violation of college standards in obtaining a degree or certification, or for other serious violations committed by a student prior to graduation.

V. Reciprocity of sanctions

During a period of suspension or expulsion, a student shall not be enrolled in any other college within the district. Disciplinary actions or sanctions shall apply to the student at all district colleges.

VI. Conduct related to college

After a hearing, the president's designee may impose an immediate suspension on a student when such action is required in order to protect property, safety, and to ensure the maintenance of order on the campus or at a campus function. No student may be removed, suspended, or expelled unless the conduct for which the student is disciplined is related to college activity or college attendance.

VII. Record of disciplinary action

In accordance with Education Code section 76220, community college districts shall establish, maintain and destroy student records according to regulations adopted by the Board of Governors of the California Community Colleges. The president's designee will create a record of disciplinary actions, along with relevant supporting documents and evidence. Consistent with the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act and District Student Services Procedure 3009, this record shall be maintained as a confidential student education record and may not be released without the permission of the student, except as permitted by law and policy. The student shall have a right to inspect the record and to challenge the contents. Disciplinary records shall be retained in a manner consistent with federal and state law and district policy, and may be destroyed in a manner consistent with District Administrative Procedure 1900.01. In accordance with Education Code section 76234, whenever there is included in any student record information concerning any disciplinary action taken by the college or district in connection with any alleged sexual assault or physical abuse or any conduct that threatens the health and safety of the alleged victim, the alleged victim of the sexual assault or physical abuse shall be informed within three (3) days of the results of any disciplinary action by the college and the results of any appeal, provided the student keeps this information confidential.

VIII. Removal by instructor

An instructor, for good cause, may remove a student from his or her class for the day of the removal and the next class meeting. (Ed. Code §§ 76032 and 76033)

A. Procedures before the removal:

1. The instructor shall notify the student of the instructor's consideration of the removal from class and the reasons for the proposed removal;
2. The instructor may remove the student from the classroom immediately. Under normal conditions, the instructor should permit the student an opportunity to present a rebuttal to the accusation or otherwise offer relevant comment on the proposed removal. There need be no delay between the time notice is given to the student and the time of such a review;
3. The instructor shall decide whether or not to proceed with the proposed removal after hearing the student's explanation and considering all of the information relative to the issue. There need be no delay between the time notice is given to the student and the removal;
4. The decision may be given to the student either orally or in writing;
5. The instructor's decision is final and may not be appealed.

B. Procedures after the removal:

1. Immediately following the removal, the instructor must notify the college president or president's designee of the removal;
2. If the student removed is a minor, the college president or president's designee shall ask the parent or guardian of the student to attend a parent conference regarding the removal as soon as possible. If the instructor or the parent or guardian so requests, a college administrator shall attend the conference;
3. The instructor may request that the student meet with the college president or president's designee within three (3) days of removal, prior to returning to class;
4. During the period of removal, the student shall not be returned to the class without the concurrence of the instructor;
5. After the student returns to class, if there are additional incidents of disruption or other behavior constituting good cause, the faculty member will provide the necessary documentation to the president's designee so that more serious consequences, such as suspension from this particular class or from all classes for the rest of the semester, can be assigned.

IX. Preliminary procedures for suspension by president's designee

The following procedures shall be taken before suspension except in the event that an emergency/interim suspension is made as set forth in Section XIV.

- A. Administration: The president's designee shall administer these procedures and take appropriate action, subject to the approval of the college president and the governing board if required herein or otherwise by law.
- B. Disciplinary action which may be imposed: The president's designee may suspend or impose a lesser sanction on a student. A suspension may consist of a period of time as follows:
 1. From one or more classes for a period up to ten (10) days of instruction;
 2. From one or more classes for the remainder of the school term;
 3. From all classes and activities of the college for one or more terms. A suspension shall not exceed three (3) years.
- C. Reporting of conduct: Alleged student misconduct shall be reported to the president's designee. The president's designee shall be the Dean of Student Services at Contra Costa College, the Dean of Student Life at Diablo Valley College, and the Senior Dean of Student Services at Los Medanos College. Other officials may be designated as the president's designee, whenever necessary for the efficient operation of the district.
- D. Investigation: Upon receiving a report of alleged student misconduct, the president's designee shall initiate an investigation.
- E. Notice: Before imposing discipline, the president's designee shall give or make reasonable efforts to give the student oral or written notice of the reason for the proposed disciplinary action. If the student is a minor, the president's designee shall also notify the parent or guardian of the investigation and charges.
- F. Preliminary hearing: Within a reasonable period of time (normally within five (5) days following the delivery to the student of the notice referred to above), the president's designee shall offer the student an opportunity to attend a meeting ("Preliminary Hearing") at which time the student may present a rebuttal to the accusation or otherwise offer relevant comment on the proposed discipline. There need be no delay between the time of the notice given to the student and the time of the meeting. If the student fails to arrange a preliminary hearing (or if he/she fails to appear for a preliminary hearing within five (5) days of the service or mailing of the notice or if he/she fails to appear for the preliminary hearing he/she has arranged), the decision of the president's designee will be final and not subject to a further appeal hearing.
- G. Determination after preliminary hearing: Based on the evidence presented, the president's designee shall decide whether or not to proceed with the proposed suspension and/or to recommend expulsion after hearing the student's explanation and considering all of the information. If the decision is to suspend for up to five (5) days, the president's designee may inform the student of the decision and send a written confirmation to the student's last known address within five (5) working days. The confirmation shall include a statement that the decision to impose a suspension for five (5) days or less, or a lesser sanction, is not appealable. If the decision is to suspend for more than five (5) school days or to recommend expulsion, the president's designee shall send the student a written notice via personal delivery or certified mail to the student's last known address as set forth below.
- H. Notice to the college president: The president's designee shall report any disciplinary action imposed to the college president.
- I. Notification after a suspension of more than five (5) days: If the president's designee imposes a suspension of more than five (5) days, the president's designee shall promptly send the student a letter of notification that is hand delivered or sent via certified mail to the student's last known address. The notification shall include:
 1. A statement of the charges, the reason for the suspension or recommended expulsion offer, and a description of facts related to the misconduct, including the evidence against the student, the date of the incident(s), time of the incident(s), and location of the offense(s).
 2. A copy of the Student Code of Conduct and board policy.
 3. An explanation that a student who has been suspended for more than five (5) days is entitled to appeal the decision and has a right to a further hearing ("Appeal Hearing"). The notification shall also state that a request for an appeal hearing shall be filed within five (5) business days of the service or mailing of the notification, whichever is earlier. The written request for an appeal hearing must be submitted to the president's designee, and must cite the specific grounds for the appeal (from those listed below), and provides information which substantiates the grounds on which the appeal is being made.
 4. Grounds for appeal - A student may appeal the decision of the president's designee on grounds that:
 - (a) Fair consideration was not provided to the student (i.e., there is evidence that some aspect of the hearing was prejudicial, arbitrary, or capricious).
 - (b) New and significant information, not reasonably available at the time of the initial hearing, has become available.
 - (c) The sanction or remedy imposed is not in due proportion to the nature and seriousness of the offense. Any evidence supporting these grounds must be included in the request for an appeal hearing.
 5. A statement that the student has the right to be accompanied at an appeal hearing by an on-campus advisor of his or her choice. If the student decides to be accompanied by an advisor, the name and address of that advisor must be submitted to the president's designee at the time the appeal is filed.

6. The president's designee may note that he or she will also recommend expulsion.
7. The notification shall include the date, time, and location of an appeal hearing if requested by the student.

J. Student right to appeal a suspension of more than five (5) days:

The student may accept a suspension in excess of five (5) days without admitting the conduct charged. In such a case, the decision of the president's designee will be final and not subject to a further appeal hearing. Should the student not accept a suspension in excess of five (5) days, the student has a right to appeal. A suspension appeal must be filed by the student no later than five (5) business days from the date the notification letter is personally served or mailed.

- K. Schedule of hearing: The president's designee shall schedule an appeal hearing no later than ten (10) working days from the date of the suspension.

X. Hearing authority for appeal hearing

- A. The college president will assign either an administrative hearing officer or may utilize a student discipline committee ("committee") to conduct appeal hearings at the college ("Hearing Authority").
- B. An administrative hearing officer shall be a college official.
- C. A committee shall include: one faculty member, one administrator or manager, and one student. The selection process for the committee, if any, will normally occur at the beginning of each academic school year.
 1. The Academic Senate will select a faculty representative and alternate(s). Vacancies will be filled by an action of the Academic Senate.
 2. The Associated Student Body will select a student representative and alternate(s). Vacancies of student members shall be filled by an action of the Associated Student Body.
 3. The college president will select the administrative or management representative and alternate(s). The administrative or management representative will serve as the committee chair. The student or the college employee shall notify the committee if he or she has a conflict of interest because he or she is involved in the discipline matter, or has a personal relationship with any of the involved parties, and, therefore, is unable to serve as a neutral party.
 4. Alternate faculty, administrative, and student members shall be appointed to ensure that a standing committee can always be convened promptly.

XI. Appeal hearing procedures

- A. The president's designee shall submit to the Hearing Authority: a description of the charges, notices, evidence, and a copy of the proposed decision. The president's designee shall present relevant evidence regarding the alleged misconduct. The accused student may then present any relevant evidence. Each party may call, examine, and cross-examine witnesses. Written statements, if any, shall be submitted under penalty of perjury. The Hearing Authority may also question witnesses. Opening and closing statements shall be limited to five (5) minutes. The president's designee shall speak first, followed by the student.

- B. The Hearing Authority shall rule on all questions of procedure and admission of evidence.
- C. Hearings need not be conducted in accordance with strict rules of evidence or formality of a court hearing.
- D. The Hearing Authority shall consider no evidence other than that evidence received at the hearing. Hearsay evidence may be used for the purpose of supplementing or explaining other evidence, but shall not be sufficient in itself to support a finding.
- E. A student may be accompanied by an advisor of his or her choosing, at the student's request. The role of the advisor is passive in this procedure. The advisor may be present at the hearing and may counsel the student. The advisor may not address the Hearing Authority and shall not be permitted to participate in any way during the hearing except to offer counsel to the student. If the student decides to be accompanied by an attorney, the name and address of that attorney must be submitted to the president's designee at the time the request for hearing is filed.
- F. The appeal hearing shall be closed to protect the privacy and confidentiality of everyone involved unless the student and district agree in writing to have a public hearing at least five (5) days in advance of the hearing. A closed hearing will be closed to everyone except the following:
 1. The student charged;
 2. The Hearing Authority;
 3. An advisor for the student charged, if so desired;
 4. The president's designee;
 5. A witness, while presenting evidence;
 6. An on-campus advisor for a witness while presenting evidence.
- G. An official audiotape recording of the hearing shall be kept. The record shall be the property of the district. The student charged may listen to the tape at a mutually agreeable location at the college. An accused student may, upon request, be provided a copy at his or her own expense.

XII. Hearing authority's consideration and recommendation

Following presentation of the evidence, the Hearing Authority shall privately consider the evidence with all persons excluded. The Hearing Authority shall send a written report to the college president within five (5) working days of the termination of the hearing. The report shall contain the following information:

- A. A summary of factual findings and a determination that the accused student did or did not commit the act(s) charged;
- B. A finding that the student's act(s) did or did not constitute a violation of the Student Code of Conduct;
- C. A recommendation for upholding or modifying the proposed discipline. The Hearing Authority may also recommend further investigation.

XIII. College president's decision

- A. The college president shall reach a decision after reviewing the report submitted by the Hearing Authority. The college president may refer the matter back to the committee or hearing officer for further clarification on details of the case, such as evidence and findings of fact. The college president may uphold the suspension, uphold the recommendation by the Hearing Authority, or adopt a lesser sanction, if appropriate. A written statement of the decision shall be sent via certified or registered mail to the student's last known address within three (3) working days of the college president's receiving the Hearing Authority's recommendation.

- B. The decision of the college president to suspend or impose a lesser sanction shall be final and not subject to further appeal.
- C. The college president shall report a disciplinary suspension of any student to the governing board at its next regular meeting after the suspension has been imposed. A copy of the suspension determination, including the reasons for the suspension, shall be placed in the student's permanent disciplinary record (not the transcript).
- D. If the college president determines that a student should be expelled, he or she will forward that recommendation through the chancellor, to the board of trustees for determination.
- E. In the event that a college president is or will be unavailable for the making of a prompt decision, the college president may appoint an unbiased designee to act on the appeal.

XIV. Emergency interim suspension

- A. An emergency/summary suspension is an immediate suspension imposed upon a student for good cause. (Ed. Code § 66017.)
- B. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the college president or the president's designee may impose an emergency/summary suspension. It is an extraordinary measure and shall be utilized when necessary to protect lives or property and to ensure the maintenance of order pending a hearing.
- C. A preliminary hearing shall be provided within ten (10) calendar days of an emergency/summary suspension. (Ed. Code § 66017.) The procedures set forth in Sections IX and X shall apply to the preliminary hearing and any appeal hearing.
- D. An emergency/summary suspension shall be reported to the governing board at its next regular meeting after such suspension has been imposed. A copy of the suspension may be placed in the student's permanent record at the discretion of the college president.

XV. Notification

The college president or president's designee shall, upon suspension or expulsion of any student, notify the appropriate law enforcement authorities of the county or city in which the school is situated of any acts of the student which may be in violation of section 245 of the Penal Code (Ed. Code § 76035).

XVI. Extensions of time

Calendar restraints may be extended with the agreement of both parties.

XVII. EXPULSION

The governing board has the sole authority to expel a student. If the college president determines that a student should be expelled, he or she shall send the recommendation through the chancellor to the governing board.

- A. Within thirty (30) instructional days of the receipt of the recommendation from the college president, and with the agreement of the chancellor, the governing board shall conduct an appeal hearing in closed session with the accused student and the college president (or president's designee).
 - 1. The hearing shall be closed to protect the privacy and confidentiality of everyone involved, unless:
 - a. the accused student requests an open hearing, in writing, within forty-eight (48) hours of being notified of the hearing, and
 - b. it is determined that holding the hearing in open session would not lead to the giving out of information concerning students which would be in violation of state or federal law regarding the privacy of student records.
 - 2. A closed hearing will be closed to everyone except the following:
 - a. The student charged.
 - b. An advisor/advocate for the student charged, if so desired. If the student chooses to be accompanied by an attorney, the student must notify the district in writing of his/her intent to bring an attorney at least five (5) business days prior to the hearing. Failure to notify the district will result in a waiver of the right to be accompanied by an attorney, or a one month postponement of the hearing.
 - c. The college president and/or president's designee.
 - d. The governing board.
 - e. The chancellor and/or district legal advisor.
 - f. The student's parent(s) or guardian, if the student is a minor.
- B. The accused student shall be notified in writing of the date and time of the hearing, and shall be provided with a copy of this policy. The notice shall be mailed via certified or registered mail, or served personally, if the student is a minor.
- C. The hearing shall be conducted in accordance with the following procedures:
 - 1. The president of the governing board will serve as chair of the hearing, and will rule on all questions of procedure and admission of evidence.
 - 2. Hearings need not be conducted in accordance with strict rules of evidence or formality of a court hearing.
 - 3. Before commencement of the hearing, the governing board shall review a description of the charges, notices, evidence, findings, and a copy of the proposed decision from the college-level disciplinary appeal hearing. The governing board shall consider no evidence other than that evidence received in the hearing process.
 - 4. The college president (or the president's designee) shall make a brief statement to the governing board, referring to relevant evidence regarding the alleged misconduct.
 - 5. The accused student may then make a brief statement to the governing board and present any relevant evidence.
 - 6. The statements shall be limited to five (5) minutes.
 - 7. Upon completion of these statements, the governing board will have an opportunity to ask questions of both the student and the college president (or president's designee).

8. The governing board will conclude the hearing, dismiss the parties, and privately deliberate as to a decision.
 9. The governing board shall issue a statement of decision including findings of fact and a determination that the accused student did or did not commit the act(s) charged, a finding that the student's act(s) did or did not constitute a violation of the Student Code of Conduct, and a decision as to whether the expulsion proposed by the president would be upheld or modified. The governing board may also recommend further investigation. Pursuant to Education Code section 72122, regardless of whether the matter is heard in open or closed session, the final action of the governing board shall be taken in open session, and the result of that action shall be a public record. The name of the student, however, shall not be released.
 10. The chancellor's office will send a written statement of the governing board's decision via certified or registered mail to the student's last known address within three (3) working days of the hearing.
 11. If the governing board's decision is unfavorable to the student, the student shall have the right to submit a written statement of his/her objections to the decision. This statement shall become a part of the student's records.
 12. The decision of the governing board is final, and not subject to further appeal.
 13. The hearing shall be electronically recorded. The record shall be the property of the district. The student charged may listen to the tape at a mutually agreeable location at the college. An accused student may, upon request, be provided a copy of the recording at his or her own expense.

Freedom of Expression (Board Policy 2019)

The constitutions of the United States and the State of California guarantee all persons the right of free and unrestricted expression.

Education Code 76120 requires that the governing board of a community college district shall adopt rules and regulations relating to the exercise of free expression by students upon the premises of each community college within the district, including reasonable provisions for the time, place, and manner of conducting such activities.

Such rules and regulations shall not prohibit the right of students to exercise free expression including, but not limited to, the use of bulletin boards, the distribution of printed materials or petitions, and the wearing of buttons, badges, or other insignia, except that expression which is obscene, libelous or slanderous according to current legal standards, or which so incites students as to create a clear and present danger of the commission of unlawful acts on community college premises, or the violations of lawful community college regulations, or the substantial disruption of the orderly operation of the community college, shall be prohibited.

These policies will be on file in the senate, student activities, and administrative offices at each site and printed in the catalog and "Student Resource Guide" for each college.

Academic Honesty Policy

Students at Contra Costa College are expected to perform honestly and ethically in completing homework and class assignments. Students who are dishonest in the performance of classwork will be subject to disciplinary action. Students accused of being dishonest have the right to request a hearing by contacting the college president's office.

Definitions

To assist students to understand what behavior is considered dishonest and unethical, the following definitions are provided.

Plagiarism: Although difficult to define, plagiarism consists of taking the words or specific substance of another and either copying or paraphrasing the work without giving credit to the source. The following examples are only some of the many forms plagiarism may take:

1. Submitting a term paper, examination or other work written by someone else. This is a flagrant instance of plagiarism;
2. Failure to give credit in a footnote for ideas, statements of fact, or conclusions derived by another;
3. Failure to use quotation marks when quoting directly from another, whether it be a paragraph, a sentence or even a part thereof;
4. Close and extended paraphrasing of another.

Cheating: Using unauthorized notes, study aids, or information from another student or student's paper on an in-class examination; altering a graded work after it has been returned, then submitting the work for re-grading; and allowing another person to do one's work and to submit the work under one's own name.

Fabrication: Presenting data in a piece of work which were not gathered in accordance with guidelines defining the appropriate methods for collecting or generating data and failing to include a substantially accurate account of the method by which the data were generated or collected.

Aiding and abetting dishonesty: Providing material or information to another person with knowledge that these materials or information will be used improperly.

Forgery, alteration or misuse of campus documents, records, or identification or knowingly furnishing false or incomplete information to a campus; altering documents affecting academic records; forging a signature of authorization; or falsifying information on an official academic document, election form, grade report, letter of permission, petition, or any document designed to meet or exempt a student from an established college academic regulation.

Disciplinary Actions, Academic Dishonesty

If a student is found guilty of dishonest or unethical behavior in the completion of homework, class assignments, or exams he or she is subject to disciplinary action. Disciplinary action may be mild or severe, ranging from a verbal or written reprimand, to probation, a grade reduction or no credit on the homework, class assignment, or exam, to suspension, expulsion or dismissal from a course or from the college.

Hearing Procedures (Due Process)

A student who is disciplined because of dishonest behavior may request a hearing with the president and/or designees for a review of the facts of the matter and to present his or her perspective. The student must call or write the Contra Costa College president requesting a hearing within ten (10) days of notification of discipline.

Privacy Rights of Students

The California Education Code, Section 76200 et seq.; Title V, California Code of Regulations, Section 54600 et seq., Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (Section 438, Public Law 93-380), and CCCCD Board Policy 3013 require that educational institutions provide you access to official education records directly related to you and to provide you an opportunity for a hearing to challenge such records on the grounds that they are inaccurate, misleading, or otherwise inappropriate.

In addition, the college must obtain your written consent before releasing personally-identifiable information about you from records to other than a specified list of persons and agencies. These rights extend to present and former students.

1. Education records generally include documents and information related to admissions, enrollment in courses, grades and related academic information.
2. The director of Admissions & Records (SSC-115) has been designated records officer, as required by the act.
3. Education records will be made available during working hours for inspection and review to presently and formerly enrolled students within fifteen (15) days following completion and filing of a request form with the records officer.
4. Any currently enrolled or former student of the district has a right of access to any and all student records relating to him or her that are maintained by the district.
5. No district representative shall release the contents of a student record to any member of the public without the prior written consent of the student, other than directory information as defined below, and information sought pursuant to a court order or lawfully issued subpoena, or as otherwise authorized by applicable federal and state laws.

Directory information shall include:

- Student participation in officially recognized activities and sports including weight, height, and high school of graduation of athletic team members;
 - Degrees and awards received by students, including honors, scholarship awards, athletic awards and Dean's List recognition.
6. Copies of the law and college policy relevant to it are available for review and inspection in the Admissions and Records office (SSC-115).

Student Complaints and Concerns

Student expression of concerns and suggestions for change are welcomed. Your involvement in campus affairs is provided through the Associated Student Union. For information regarding participating, contact the Student Union office, SAB-109.

Student Grievance Process

The student grievance procedure is based on resolving an issue at the most appropriate level in an efficient and equitable manner. A student may file a grievance or grieve an action or decision of the district or one of its colleges when the student's status and/or rights have been adversely affected.

Stage I: Informal Process

1. If a complaint is not resolved between the instructor and the student, the student will be referred to the department chairperson (if this is not the same person as the instructor). The department chairperson may call the instructor and student for an informal conference to attempt to resolve the problem.
2. If the complaint is not resolved at the department chairperson level, the student will be referred to the division dean who will meet with the student and instructor for an informal conference to attempt to resolve the problem. If the instructor is retired or no longer at the college, then the department chairperson will be involved in this conference.
3. If the grievance is not resolved at this stage, then the next step for the student is to start Stage II: Formal Process.

Stage II: Formal Process

1. If the complaint is not resolved at the division dean level, the division dean will refer the student to the grievance officer.
2. If a complaint involves the issue of discrimination or harassment, the grievance officer will direct the student to pursue board policy 2002 (Governing Board policy for the Investigation and Resolution of Complaints of Unlawful Discrimination).
3. If the complaint is not grievable, the grievance officer, John Wade, GA 90, will direct the student to the appropriate manager.
4. If the grievance officer finds the student complaint grievable after reviewing the student documentation, the grievance committee will be notified in order to schedule a date for a hearing. Examples of grievable actions include, but are not limited to, the violation of: right to confidential records, right of free and unrestricted expression, right to file a grievance/complaint, right to view campus crime statistics, freedom of assembly, etc.
5. The grievance committee meets when necessary to hear complaints involving disputed grades, contents of records, or other unresolved issues. The committee hears the complaint, deliberates, and makes a recommendation.
 - A. Membership of the grievance committee is as follows:
 - Three members of the Academic Senate Sub Committee, Student Services Committee, one of whom will serve as chairperson;
 - The grievance officer (resource person);

- Classified staff representative;
 - Student representative;
 - Dean/Manager (not the involved division);
- B. Timeline and procedures for formal grievance process:
- The grievance committee will be convened within thirty (30) days of receipt of the student grievance form. Prior to the meeting of the grievance committee, the grievance officer will collect documentation from the student grieving, as well as from the instructor. This documentation will be distributed to all committee members no later than three (3) working days prior to the meeting.
 - While no attorneys are to be present at the grievance committee, both student and instructor may bring one representative to the grievance committee meeting.
 - Grievance committee meetings will be taped.
 - Both student and instructor will be present during the grievance committee meeting.
- C. Format of the grievance committee meeting is as follows:
- The intent of the meeting is to clarify the issues and facts of the situation. It is not intended to be adversarial in nature.
 - Student grades given by an instructor are final "in the absence of mistake, fraud, bad faith, or incompetency". (Education Code, 76224 (a))
 - The meeting will begin with the student's presentation of the issue. The committee will ask the student questions to clarify the issues.
 - The instructor will address and answer questions from the committee to clarify the issues.
 - When all presentations and questions have been completed, the student and the instructor will be invited to leave. The grievance committee will deliberate and decide upon a recommendation regarding the issue.
 - The chairperson and the grievance committee will forward the recommendation of the committee to the vice president.
 - The vice president notifies the student and the instructor of the final decision within five (5) working days of receiving the recommendation of the grievance committee.
- D. Appeal process:
- If the decision of the vice president is unfavorable to student or instructor, either can appeal the decision to the president of the college within three (3) working days of receiving the decision from the vice president.
 - The college president notifies the student and the instructor of the final decision within five (5) working days of the final decision.
 - In reference to a grade grievance, if the college president sustains the student's complaint and determines that a change of grade is warranted, the instructor may appeal the decision in writing to the governing board of the Contra Costa Community College District within ten (10) working days of receipt of the final decision.
 - Within thirty (30) days of receipt of the final decision of the college president, the student may appeal the decision in writing to the governing board of the community college district.
 - Within thirty (30) days of receipt of such an appeal, the governing board shall conduct a closed session with the student and the instructor, who recorded the grade, to determine whether to sustain or deny the allegations. The decision of the governing board is final. [Education Code, Section 76232]
 - If the decision of the governing board is unfavorable to the student, the student has the right to submit written objections to the given grade, which the district must maintain as part of the student's academic records. [Education Code, Section 76232(d)]
