Dependency Status Determination: Required only for applicants under 19 years of age.

By California law, qualification for resident tuition is based on the residency of your parent(s) or guardians(s) until you are 19 years of age, except in certain special circumstances. The following questions will be used to determine whether or not you need to provide parent or guardian information for the purposes of determining residency. Your response will not affect your admissions to college. The college may request additional information prior to making a final residency determination.

If you are currently under 19 years of age, you must select the statement that applies to you:

I am under 19 years old and at least one of the statements below is true about me:

- I am or have been married.
- I am legally emancipated.
- I do not have a living parent or guardian.
- As of the day before the first day of the term I am applying for, I am or will be on active duty in the armed forces.
- As of the day before the first day of the term I am applying for, I have been self-supporting for at least one year.

I am under 19 years old and none of the statements above are true about me.

IMPORTANT: If you answered "None of the statements above are true about me", you must provide information about your parent/guardian in the California Residency section.
